

Name: _____

BOOK BINGO

January

Complete a square and color it in with your family. Five squares in a row, (horizontal, vertical, or diagonal) means BOOK BINGO! Complete all squares (cover the board) and bring it back to school at the end of the month.

Read a book about a winter animal. Talk or write down two facts you learned.	Go to the library and check out books to read.	Write a list about ten things you like about winter.	Read your favorite book at bedtime.	Play a board game with someone at your house.
Read a book and talk about the beginning, middle, and end.	Read a book and talk about the setting. (Where the story takes place.)	Read a book and find ten sight words as you read.	Sound out the following words and write them down. (van, hat, pen, hot, pig). Use one in a sentence.	Read an informational text about an animal.
Read a snowman story. Draw and write your favorite part.	Set the timer and have the whole family sit down and read for 30 minutes.	 Free Space	Read a book while you eat breakfast.	Read a book about a winter sport.
Read a book and talk about the problem and how it was solved.	Read a sequel to a book you have read before.	Read a book you have never read before.	Read 4 books before bedtime.	Read a story and talk about the ending. If you were the author how would you have changed the ending?
Draw a winter scene and write two sentences about your picture.	Write a list of all the books you read this month. If you want bring the list to school to share.	Read two fiction stories and compare and contrast. Talk about how they are the same and different.	Drink hot chocolate while you read a book. Don't forget the marshmallows!	Read a book in the car.

©MyDayinK

Due: Feb. 3